The Dales Way

ILKLEY TO BOWNESS-ON-WINDERMERE

About the Dales Way

Millions of people visit the Dales each year to enjoy the scenery, the fresh air and the peace and quiet. The Dales Way is a long-distance footpath that follows the course of the Great Wharfe Valley, passing through the great, rolling hills of the Dales. It is a route of great beauty and interest, and it is one of the best ways to see the Dales.
